DEMOCRATS IN PERFECT HARMONY.

Mass Convention At Hardinsburg

Saturday A Business Affair

Gen. David Murray Chairman.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Hardinsburg, Ky., June 8.—[Special]

The Democrats of Breckenridge County in Mass Convention met at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Court House with a representative gathering from all parts of the county.

In the absence of county chairman, T. J. Moore, the convention was called to order by Dr. Milton Board, who called for motions to be chosen.

The names of Gen. D. R. Murray and Judge H. D. Moorman were presented to the meeting. Mr. Murray was elected and in a new way told that William Jennings Bryan would be elected in November.

There being no contests on and as the Democrats of Breckenridge are in perfect harmony and of one mind, no exciting or unusual scenes occurred. Federal office holders were arrayed against the "outs" or the masses. It was a clean, business affair in which all were united in one common cause.

The chair appointed a committee composed of Jesse Whitworth, John A. Barry, Dr. M. Board, E. F. Shellman and C. V. Robertson, who submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted after which the convention adjourned:

RESOLUTIONS.

The Democrats of Breckenridge County in Convention assembled to prove the case of the State Executive Committee for a State Convention to be held on June 11, 1908 for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Democratic National Convention which convenes in Denver, Colorado, July 7, 1908. We respectfully approve the call for a convention to be held outside the city of Louisville, whose representation in the legislature elected as United States Senator the leader of the Republican party of Kentucky instead of the Democratic nominee made so by the people of the State in a Democratic Primary.

We are in favor of the utmost harmony between all the facts that have heretofore existed within the ranks of the party; but we assert that harmony cannot be secured by putting a premium on party parity or by putting in places of power the leaders of the movement to defeat Democratic nominees and elect Republicans to office to which Democrats ought not to be elected.

Remembering the belief in the integrity, political and patriotic character and matchless ability of William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska, we instruct our delegates to vote for delegates from the 4th Congressional District and from the State at large who will spare no effort to bring about the nomination of Mr. Bryan for the presidency at the Democratic Convention.

Recognizing the fitness of county chairman, T. J. Moore for the position of State Central committee man for the 4th Congressional District, we instruct our delegation to vote for him for such position and to vote for such other men and measures as Mr. Moore may direct as bringing about his election.

Judge H. D. Moorman having been mentioned as a delegate to the National Convention and declining in the interest of T. J. Moore, candidate for State Central Committee man, to succeed him is hereby informed as Chairman of the Breckenridge County delegation to the State Convention.

We further instruct our delegation to vote as a unit upon all questions which may come before the District meeting delegates or the State Convention.

We endorse the record of the Hon. Ben Johnson, our efficient congressman and command him for his faithful service.

We recommend the following persons delegates to the State Convention: Hon. D. R. Murray, E. F. Lyons, Gus Brown, Mike Miller, Edmund Wroe, James Younger, John Jennings, R. C. Richardson, W. C. Blaine, Hon. E. H. Shellman, Jess Walls, Earl Bennett, Ernest Henderson, Willis Carter, Huse Alexander, Wade Pile, T. J. Moore, H. D. Moorman, C. V. Robertson and D. C. Moorman.

LIFE SPENT IN BRECKENRIDGE.

John Thomas Moore, Prominent Farmer, Dies After an Illness of Four Years.

WAS SIXTY YEARS OF AGE.

Hardinsburg, Ky., June 9.—[Special]—The Democrats of Breckenridge County in Mass Convention met at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Court House with a representative gathering from all parts of the county.

In the absence of county chairman, T. J. Moore, the convention was called to order by Dr. Milton Board, who called for motions to be chosen.

The names of Gen. D. R. Murray and Judge H. D. Moorman were presented to the meeting. Mr. Murray was elected and in a new way told that William Jennings Bryan would be elected in November.

His wife was Laura Bell Mercer, daughter of M. J. Mercer. To their union were born an interesting family of children, the eldest being Circuit Court Clerk Tom J. Moore, of Hardinsburg. The others are E. Moore, of Glendale; Mrs. Jas. Mattingly, of Axton; and Joe, Will and Blackburn, and the sisters, Fannie and Julia. The mother and children survive their loss, as do two of Mr. Moore's sisters, Mrs. Joe White and Mrs. Edward Cannon, both of Grayson county.

He was a life-long, active and influential Democrat and a charter member of the McDaniels Lodge of Free Masons. After the dissolution of the McDaniels Lodge he became a member at Glendale. In belief he was a Baptist, and had never attached himself to the church. A few weeks before his death he was immersed, and his last days were ones of Christian resolution and full faith in the eternal rest beyond the grave.

His home was a most hospitable one, known to all who ever visited the Forks of Rough section of the county, and the visitor or traveler who once was entertained under his roof remained pleased with the Kentucky hospitality as it was ever lavished in his home.

On Saturday afternoon, after the Rev. Dan Shacklett, of Meade county, had preached the funeral at the home, the remains were given over to his Masonic brethren who laid them away in the family burying ground on the farm a few hundred yards from the home. W. J. Piggott, of Irvington, was master of ceremonies. Masons from Glendale, Short Creek, Hudson, Blevinsville, Hardinsburg, Hardin Springs and Letticefield lodges were present, besides an immense gathering of other friends and relatives who met to pay their parting tribute of respect to a friend whom they honored and loved.

Cloverport Girl

REPUBLICANS

Hold County Committee Meeting At Hardinsburg—J. P. Haswell Sr., Succeeds Gus Shellman.

Hardinsburg, Ky., June 9.—[Special]

At a meeting of the Republican County Committee here Saturday afternoon, the Hon. John P. Haswell, Jr., was elected County Chairman to succeed Gus Shellman, who has been Chairman for something more than three years and a most excellent one at that. His fine record did not prevent there being a little army of seekers for his place. Besides Mr. Haswell, who consented to accept the place, Judge Wm. A. Dr. S. P. Parks, Herbert Beard, and John Bates were anxious to serve their party.

Allen R. Kincheloe was elected Secretary. This position has been held for some time by Mr. Haswell, who goes to the County Chairmanship.

Presence of Mind.

A clergymen was talking on the prevalence of selfishness. "We incline," he said, "to put ourselves too far ahead of other people. We could all make better records than to do less well. As it is, we are too much like the student. There was you, a poor Vermont art student who shared a studio bedroom with a journalist from Wisconsin. The Vermonter went out one morning to do the marketing and brought home two chops. I let them on the table, and the cat leaped up and devoured one.

"Hang it," he said to his Wisconsin host, "the cat has eaten your chops!"—Washington Star.

EIGHT PAGES.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1908.

SAY'S OFFICER CASEY.

"Tis gr-eat times th' Raypublic'n party will be havin' at their conviction in th' Colly-see-um week after next," said officer Casey to his wife. "I'll be thankful if it passes off without any bloodshed, but if 'tis more'n likely there will be a fat'rit son or two kilt."

"What, murdered?" asked Mrs. Casey.

"No, crushed dith in th' rush t' git on th' Taft band wagon," said Casey.

"There will be many a prom'nt statesman that'll be glad t' hang on th' back sprungs an' pu'f like he was pushin' th' whole ca-art."

"But if they ai-ve all fr Taft, thin why ar-e there so many confests?" asked Mrs. Casey.

"A contis, ma'am, means no more th'n that there is not room in th' deligation f'r all th' loyal party min that hope later t' exchang their deligate badges fr postmaster's jobs an' ministers t' furin lands."

"Take th' gr-eat Raypublic'n shate in Alabama, fr instance. Alabama has a contis. Why? Because there ar-e, by th' last ein, sixty-sivin Raypublic'n in th' shate, with twenty-on in th' deligation, by a strange coincidence, twenty-wan lidral jobs available fr Alabamans. With nothin' but th' prospect in starvation before them f'r another four year, th' forty-six ar-e makin' a despit fight f'r life an' jobs.

"It makes no diff'rnce which crowd gets th' seats in th' conviction hall, fr thin that is declared reg'lar won't dare vote fr any man but Taft. T' git home they have t' go through Wash'nton, an' c'n't ye imagine any man that voted f'r Hughes durin' t' vintre that near th' White House?" Tis not so certain about th' Texas deligation, however, fr their return tickets read by way in Roosia, an' so they may vintre t' vote fr Knox—under assumed names, though."

"Thin if th' conviction is goin' t' do just what the President wants, what's th' use is goin' t' th' expise in havin' it?" asked Mrs. Casey.

"If ye understand th' real purpose is a convention, ma'am, ye'd not be askin' such a question. A national convention is held fr th' bennifit in th' hotels, th' cabinin', th' railways an' th' married min that don't dare be seen takin' a drop at home. Instructed deligates ar-e thin that have been told by their wives t' be in bed reg'lar at 9 o'clock in a night, while deligates at la-arge ar-e those that didn't have t' sign th' pledge before gettin' on th' train. An alternate is a deligate's understudy that does his votin' f'r him if th' gr-eat ma-an gets stranded on a ba-ar an' can't be floated off before mornin'—Chicago Evening Post.

The members of the school board are interested in the children of Cloverport and they are eager to give them better advantages. They, like all unselfish citizens, want two more rooms added to the school building and may everybody in town do his part to help the trustee succeed in this undertaking. A flower cannot grow and develop in a crowded bed; neither can a child develop, grow and gain intellectually, in a crowded school room. Let us all do we can for the school children, for a little child shall lead us." We go to hear him speak his first verse in the Graded School, we attend his High School commencement and follow him where ever he goes. The brighter we make his path in life, the happier will be our life.

When the Democrats in Kentucky get in line and good fellowship with the Hon. Henry Watterson and Col. Bill Haldeman they will be in good shape to do something. You may say what you please about these two men but they are leaders, they are the power behind the throne in the Democratic ranks in old Kentucky. We don't admire their methods or their policies but we do admire their loyalty to their party and to their principles. No man in Kentucky has done more for the Democratic party than has Mr. Watterson.

Are you talking and working for water works? You know and every man knows how badly they are needed in our town. Why not get on the firing line, put yourself to the front and go for them? Your enthusiasm will enligh't others. No greater work to engage in for Cloverport. Let's all get in line for water works all over the city.

The Democrats ought to turn over a new leaf. Endorse Roosevelt and his policies, that they love so well and nominate him on their ticket. That is the only road for them to take to get into the White House.

Uncle Sam has $800,000,000 surplus money now on hand that he don't know what to do with. The last Congress gave it to him. My isn't Uncle Sam rich.

John Ditty is a red hot Bryanite. He says the country is wild for him. It's another case of 1896 and some of us remember what kind of a case that was.

It will cost the new-papers of this country more than a quarter of a million dollars to handle the coming National conventions.

Harry Summers ought to turn himself into a June bridegroom and then he wouldn't have so much to say about June brides.

You can't route the Republicans of a thing they have had for forty years and run so successfully.

The Democrats are now engaged in their regular order of business, resolute and condemning.

We predict for Taft a greater victory than Roosevelt got.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the deafened portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitution of remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is perfectly closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to a normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Dr. Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

WAITED PATIENTLY FOR DEATH ANGEL.

Mrs. H. L. Zeigler, Of New Bridge, Oregon, Dies Of Consumption In Hardingburg.

DAUGHTER OF MR. DURHAM.

Hardingburg Ky. June 9.—(Special.) At 2 o'clock Thursday morning, June 8, Mrs. H. L. Zeigler, of New Bridge, Oregon, quietly breathed her last at the home of her father, Mr. James Durham, of this city.

On January first 1907, the deceased, whose maiden name was Edith Durham, became the bride of Mr. H. L. Zeigler who had come all the way from Oregon to claim her as his wife. They soon left for their distant home with dreams of many happy years.

His wife's failing health caused Mr. Zeigler to return some time ago with her and the little Edith who had come to brighten their home. In consumption's clutches she reached her father's home, patiently to await for the death she knew to be near.

Mr. Zeigler was a beautiful, Cimarron character, a member of the M. E. church South.

Friday evening the Rev. B. A. Braden passed the funeral sermon at the Methodist church. The local servants of the Gouvernor members of Knights of Pythias were present. Mr. Zeigler is a K. P.

The interment was made on the former home of Mr. Durhams, near Kirk, where are his other brothers and sisters interred.

The News extends sympathy to the bereaved.

Mr. Plank III.

Master Mechanic Plank has been ill since Sunday. He will probably be able to be at his office at the Henderson Road shops today.

Million A Year For Roads.
Connecticut still leads in the good roads movement, but New York was the third the most four years before last and Massachusetts the second, in 1907. Now Connecticut spends $1,000,000 a year, while the first spends but $90,000 and the second but $100,000 less than that. The amount of money the good roads people are getting together, the only other states whose total annual appropriations are larger being New York with $7,000,000 and Pennsylvania with $1,500,000, but these states are vastly larger than little Connecticut.

Bad Roads, Indeed.
It is no wonder that the grangers are speaking pieces in favor of better roads, as the mud is something formidable on the country roads. At East Longmeadow, Mass., one of the granges was closed on a recent Sunday on account of the muddy condition of the roads, says the Hartford Times. A Harvard finaner, party, driving to Connecticut found the roads impassable by some passes, rendering it necessary to turn to the back roads, and to others, that they "never saw the like of it," and the chafleur who goes on the back roads is entitled to a premium.

The Cheapest Roadmaker.
The "steel roads without money" movement that has by means of King's split log road drag converted the slough holes of the "iron belt" roads into model turnpikes is extending to the country roads. "The roads are either very good or very bad," says Garrison Mumford. Mr. King is arranging with the various state boards of agriculture to give a series of practical demonstrations of the use of his device on eastern roads where the success of road dragging is more doubtful because of sand and rocks.

HENRY SPENCER

Detains Mrs. Maggie Sanders on Public Highway.

Mrs. Maggie Sanders, living in the neighborhood of Patesville, Hancock county, was here one day last week and wrote out a warrant before Squire Bates against Henry Spencer, of the same locality, charging him with having detained her on the public highway against her will.

Mrs. Sanders was alone in her buggy, returning home from this city, when she says Spencer accosted her. She says she got out of her buggy, and Spencer grabbed hold of her, but she pulled away from him, and ran some distance to the nearest house. Spencer lives in Hancock county, and the sheriff there has a warrant for his arrest.

How to Use the King Drag and Hwy.

In Missouri the roads are really bad and improved by the King road drag has been taken up systematically.

The following suggestions are from a bulletin by the Missouri board of agriculture:

YOUNG MAN
KILLED BY TRAIN

Remains of Allen Burch Brought Home From Gallagher, Ill.,
To Hardinsburg

LIVED TWENTY-FOUR HOURS

Hardinsburg, June 9.—(Special).—The remains of Allen Burch, son of J. O. Burch, of Kewanee, Ill., arrived here Sunday night and were buried in St. Ronald's cemetery Monday morning.

On trying to alight from a moving train last Thursday at Gallagher, Ill., young Burch, 20, fell and was thrown under the train, suffering such mauling of feet and limbs that his legs had to be amputated. He survived the amputation but died on Friday.

Allen Burch formerly lived two miles from Hardinsburg on the Leitchfield road. Two or three years ago they moved to Illinois. He was an excellent young man and had many friends. The father and three brothers accompanied the remains here for burial. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved in this, unluckily death of one just entering into manhood,

HINTS FROM MISSOURI.

How to Use the King Drag and Hwy.

an Ideal Road.

In Missouri the roads are really bad and improved by the King road drag has been taken up systematically.

The following suggestions are from a bulletin by the Missouri board of agriculture:

Don't drive too fast.

Don't walk, get on the drag and ride.

Don't wait for your neighbors to take.

Don't wait. They may be waiting on you.

Don't wait for the big graded to come and shape up your road.

Don't wait for one pile or two.

Don't wait to cut out the hollows in the road and deepen them.

When two are used the one keeps the other up, and soon the hollows with have filled and become level like the balance of the road.

Don't wait for good roads until the other folks begin to talk about maintenance at public expense.

This will cost from $2,000 to $25,000 a mile, and for country purposes, where there is no heavy hauling, it is better than, not as easily maintained as, a road originally made with a drag.

Five dollars a mile with a plow, use the road drag will keep the ordinary country road that is properly drained, graded and bridged or culverted in first class condition after months in the year and make it a fairly decent road, the only time necessary for this can be done in one or two years.

The longer the drag is used intelligently the better the road will become until finally it is oval and smooth and hard and elastic.

This is the ideal road, and nothing but a road properly made with the drag or an asphalt road meets all the requirements.

SOME OTHER STARTLING TESTIMONIALS.

ALDERMAN GEORGE W. WEICK,

"I have used Peruna for catarrh of the stomach and it has helped me wonderfully to some one."

Catarrh of Head and Stomach.

MR. SAMUEL A. SEAL, Route 2,
Treadway, Tenn., writes:

"I have great pleasure to testify to the great good your medicine, Peruna, has done for me in a chronic case of catarrh of the stomach. I was confined to my bed for months, and my wife, who is a good cook, could not get me to eat, and I had to live on bread and water. I had tried everything that I could find recommended for catarrh, without any benefit. I tried the best physicians in Hancock County, with little or no benefit. I tried two of the best physicians in Hardin County, and found they were doing me no good. I was gradually growing worse."

"Then a friend of mine, passing by, handed me one of your pamphlets, and seeing how Peruna was recommended for catarrh, I sent to you for a bottle. I took it and soon found a distance of fifteen miles, and progreed some of your Peruna, and began taking same according to directions, and after taking it a few days I began to get better."

"I still take it and I am able to go to work on the farm again, and now I am in very good health and do now work on my farm."

People who Object to Liquid Medicines Should Buy Peruna Tablets.
